INTRODUCTION

On the rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the compiled service records of soldiers who served in the American Army during the Revolutionary War. The compiled service records consist of one or more jacket-envelopes for each soldier containing card abstracts of entries relating to that soldier from original records. These compiled and original records are part of the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, Record Group 93.

The American forces during the Revolutionary War included many types of military organizations created by the Continental Congresses, the States, towns, and counties. The Regular units authorized by the Continental Congresses formed the Continental Army, but this Army was frequently supplemented by units of militia and volunteers from the States. The compiled service records reproduced in this microfilm publication contain records for the Regular soldiers of the Continental Army and for the militia, volunteers, and others who served with them. The larger entity is referred to in this publication as the American Army.

In 1775 the Continental Congress took command of the forces of the New England colonies besieging Boston and instituted the first of a series of major reorganizations of the Army. In resolutions of November 4, 1775, the Continental Congress authorized the establishment of a Continental Army of 20,372 men. Each regiment was to contain 728 men, divided among eight companies; and each company was to consist of a captain, two lieutenants, an ensign, four sergeants, four corporals, two fifers or drummers, and 76 privates.<sup>1</sup> Additional regiments, sometimes containing fewer men, were authorized by the Continental Congresses for such purposes as the Canadian campaigns<sup>2</sup> and the defense of the Southern States.<sup>3</sup> Many of the authorized regiments in this and later reorganizations were never completely filled.

Another major reorganization of the Army was authorized in resolutions of September 16, 1776. The Continental Congress ordered the enlistment of 88 battalions (or regiments) for the duration of the war and apportioned those battalions among the States as follows: New Hampshire, three; Massachusetts, 15; Rhode Island, two; Connecticut, eight; New York, four; New Jersey, four; Pennsylvania, 12; Delaware, one; Maryland, eight; Virginia, 15; North Carolina, nine; South Carolina, six; and Georgia, one. The States were to recruit the soldiers and appoint the officers for their battalions, although the officers would be formally commissioned by the Continental Congress.<sup>4</sup>

In 1778 the Continental Congress authorized the reduction of the Army to 80 battalions, each containing 585 men.<sup>5</sup> In October 1780 the Congress further reduced the Army by ordering that, after January 1, 1781, the Continental Army consist of four regiments of cavalry or light dragoons, four regiments of artillery, 49 regiments of infantry (excluding Colonel Hazen's regiment), and one regiment of artificers.<sup>6</sup> Finally, the Continental Congress on June 2, 1784, directed the commanding officer to discharge all the troops in the service of the United States, retaining only 80 privates, with a proportionate number of officers, to guard the stores at Fort Pitt, West Point, and other magazines.<sup>7</sup>

A typical infantry regiment in the Continental Army, generally referred to in this publication as a regiment or battalion without the designation "infantry," might contain field officers, such as a colonel, lieutenant colonel, and major; a regimental staff, including an adjutant, quartermaster, surgeon, surgeon's mate, paymaster, and chaplain; and eight to 10 companies.

Cavalry and artillery regiments were organized in a similar way, although cavalry companies were frequently called troops. Artillery companies included specialized soldiers, such as bombardiers, gunners, and matrosses. The soldiers in artillery regiments often functioned individually, or in small groups, rather than as a regiment.

Artificers were civilian or military mechanics and artisans employed by the Army to provide necessary services. Artificer companies included carpenters, blacksmiths, wheelwrights, harness makers, coopers, nailers, and farriers.

History of the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records

Most of the records of the American Army in the custody of the War Department were destroyed by fire on November 8, 1800. The War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records was begun in 1873 when Secretary of War William Belknap made the first of several purchases of Revolutionary War records for the Department. By War Department orders of July 3 and 16, 1889, a Record and Pension Division was established to take custody of the military records of the Volunteer Armies of the United States and to transact the pension and other business of the Department connected with those records. The Division was designated the Record and Pension Office of the War Department by an act of May 9, 1892 (27 Stat. 27), and Col. Fred C. Ainsworth became Chief of the Office. At Ainsworth's instigation, Congress passed acts on July 27, 1892 (27 Stat. 275), and August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 403), that directed the other executive departments of the Federal Government to transfer military records of the Revolutionary War in their possession to the War Department. The last major addition to the collection was in 1914-15 when the War Department made photographic copies of Revolutionary War records in the possession of individuals and institutions in several States to supplement the original records.

Compiled Military Service Records

The compilation of military service records from the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records was begun in 1894 under the direction of Colonel Ainsworth. The abstracts made from the original records were verified by a separate operation of comparison, and great care was taken to ensure that the abstracts and the indexes were accurate.

The service records consist of a jacket-envelope for each soldier, labeled with his name, his rank, and the unit or special corps in which he served. The jacket-envelope contains card abstracts of entries relating to the soldier as found in original muster rolls; payrolls; rank rolls; inspection, provision, and clothing returns; receipts for pay and bounty; accounts for subsistence, pay, rations, clothing, and ordnance; abstracts of muster and pay rolls; and correspondence. Abstracts were also made from 24 of the numbered record books in the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, Volumes 1-11, 13 1/2, 136 1/2, 139, 142, 143, 145, 147, 1/2, 170-173, 175, and 176. There are cross-references for soldiers' names that appeared in the records under more than one spelling.

Frequently preceding the jacket-envelopes for individual soldiers in each organizational unit are similar envelopes containing caption cards for muster rolls, payrolls, or other records. The cards show the exact captions of documents that were copied for each organization and the certificates of officers verifying the accuracy of the records. Jacket-envelopes for general pay abstracts precede those for other caption cards, and printed caption cards for general pay abstracts usually reproduce the entire pay abstract. Jacket-envelopes with caption cards for an entire regiment precede those containing caption cards for the field and staff and individual companies.

The compiled service records are arranged under the designation "Continental Troops" or a State name, thereunder by organization, and thereunder alphabetically by soldier's surname. The military organizations designated "Continental Troops" were generally State units adopted by the Continental Congress in the first years of the Revolutionary War or units raised in more than one State. Regular units of the Continental Army that were raised in only one State are generally listed with that State's military organizations.

The organizations for the Continental Troops and for each State are arranged in two major groups, according to the size of the organization. The larger military units, including regiments, battalions, detachments, corps, brigades, and legions, precede the smaller units, such as companies, parties, troops, or commands. Companies, parties, troops, or commands, however, that were an integral part of larger organizations are generally arranged within the larger organizations. Within the two major groups according to size, units with numerical designations precede units with nominal designations. Thus, the arrangement of the compiled service records for South Carolina organizations is as follows: First Regiment - Sixth Regiment, Casey's Regiment - Thomson's Regiment, First Company - Third Company, and Butler's Company - Captain Michael Watson's Company.

An appendix to this introduction lists the units of the Continental Troops and of each State in three categories: all units with numerical designations, all units with nominal designations, and miscellaneous units. Organizations with both numerical and nominal designations are listed under both categories but are arranged on microfilm according to the number designation. When several organizations have the same number designation, an alphabetical order is followed with battalions, corps, and detachments preceding regiments, and artillery regiments preceding infantry regiments and regiments of light dragoons.

Because the military units of the Continental Army were frequently reorganized, there are sometimes several series of compiled service records for the different formations of a unit, all bearing the same name or number designation. When the records for each formation are maintained separately, the year the formation was organized is sometimes included, in parentheses, in its title. The Connecticut records, for instance, include a "Seventh Regiment (1775)" and a "Seventh Regiment (1776)."

When a consolidation of several regiments was made, the new organization was sometimes labeled with the designations of the several regiments involved. An example is the Virginia organization designated the "Fourth, Eighth, and Twelfth Regiment." The compiled service records for several Virginia consolidated regiments contain empty jacket-envelopes labeled with the names of the soldiers in the regiment and the locations of the jacket-envelopes containing all the card abstracts for those soldiers.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES MICROFILM PUBLICATIONS

Military organizations without a number or name designation are arranged at the end of the series to which they belong. Thus, the Regiment Extraordinary (Maryland) is placed at the end of the alphabetical series of Maryland regiments. Miscellaneous smaller organizations, such as the Field Artillery Company (New Hampshire), are arranged at the end of the alphabetical series of companies for New Hampshire.

Soldiers' names that are incomplete due to the mutilation or deterioration of the original records are arranged at the end of the compiled service records for their units. Soldiers, employees, or other personnel of the American Army with only a first name in the original records are listed by that name in the compiled service records.

At the end of the records for the Continental Troops is a series labeled "Miscellaneous," consisting of compiled records of soldiers' names that cannot be identified with a particular military unit. The series also includes high-ranking officers of the American Army who were associated with many military organizations. Likewise, a miscellaneous series labeled merely with the State's name exists at the end of the records for each State, except Georgia, to serve a similar function. For instance, the series labeled "Pennsylvania" was taken from such records as a list of officers who were paroled prisoners on Long Island, a list of prisoners from different regiments in General Wayne's division, a "Return of the Pennsylvania Line, entitled to donation lands, reported by the late Comptroller General," and an account book entitled The State of Pennsylvania Against the United States for Depreciation on Pay of the Army.

The designations of military units in this microfilm publication are generally reproduced exactly as they appear on compiled service records and on index cards.

Indexes

Within Record Group 93, several name indexes contain entries from the military service records reproduced in this microfilm publication. The most comprehensive name index to the records is available as National Archives Microfilm Publication General Index to Compiled Military Service Records of Revolutionary War Soldiers (M860). Various parts of the General Index are also available separately as follows: Index to Compiled Service Records of Revolutionary War Soldiers Who Served With the American Army in North Carolina Organizations (M257); Index to Compiled Service Records of American Naval Personnel Who Served During the Revolutionary War (M879); and additional unpublished indexes to the names of soldiers serving in organizations from the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, and Virginia.

Related Records in the National Archives

Although some references to employees, prisoners of war, and other persons associated with the American Army are included in the records reproduced in this microfilm publication, most of the Revolutionary War compiled service records for persons other than soldiers have been published as Compiled Service Records of American Naval Personnel and Members of the Departments of the Quartermaster General and the Commissary General of Military Stores Who Served During the Revolutionary War (M880).

The original records and copies of records from which the Revolutionary War compiled service records were made are available on Revolutionary War Rolls, 1775-1783 (M246), and Numbered Record Books Concerning Military Operations and Service, Pay and Settlement of Accounts, and Supplies in the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records (M853). Notations in the lower left corner of the card abstracts frequently indicate the file or volume number of the original record copied.

Notations on card abstracts also sometimes refer to numbers preceded by the initials "R & P." These references are to file citations in the general correspondence of the Record and Pension Office of the War Department, in the Records of the Adjutant General's Office, 1780's-1917, Record Group 94. The index to this correspondence series is available as Index to General Correspondence of the Record and Pension Office, 1889-1904 (M686).

Pension and bounty land warrant application files based on the service of Revolutionary War military and naval personnel are in the Records of the Veterans Administration, Record Group 15. They have been reproduced as Revolutionary War Pension and Bounty-Land-Warrant Application Files (M804), and Selected Records From Revolutionary War Pension and Bounty-Land-Warrant Application Files (M805).

The War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, Record Group 93, contains two other publications relating to the American Army: Miscellaneous Numbered Records (The Manuscript File) in the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, 1775-1790's (M859), and Special Index to Numbered Records in the War Department Collection of Revolutionary War Records, 1775-1783 (M847). The record group also contains other series of unnumbered record books and photographic copies of some State records.

Journals, correspondence, and other records of the Continental and Confederation Congresses are among the Records of the Continental and Confederation Congresses and the Constitutional Convention, Record Group 360. These records have been microfilmed as Papers of the Continental Congress, 1774-1789 (M247), and Miscellaneous Papers of the Continental Congress, 1774-1789 (M332).

International and Indian Treaties are among the General Records of the United States Government, Record Group 11, and the Indian treaties have been reproduced as Ratified Indian Treaties, 1722-1869 (M668). Ledgers and other fiscal records of the Government of the Revolutionary War period are among the Records of the Bureau of Accounts (Treasury), Record Group 39; the Records of the Bureau of the Public Debt, Record Group 53; the General Records of the Department of the Treasury, Record Group 56; and the Records of the United States General Accounting Office, Record Group 217.

These introductory remarks were written by Marie Allen.

Feb. 16, 1916.

Helen J. Donough,
2108 Rucker Avenue,
Everett, Washington.

The records of this office show that one James Russell, rank not stated, served in the Revolutionary War in Captain Robert Culbertson's Company, 3d (Colonel John Montgomery's) Battalion of Cumberland County, Pennsylvania Militia. His name appears on a roll, not dated, for the period from December 5 to 25, year not stated which roll bears no special remark relative to his service.

The records also show that one James Russell served in said war as a fifer in Captain Joseph Pott's Company, 5th Pennsylvania Regiment of Foot, commanded by Colonel Francis Johnston. He enlisted April 10, 1777; to serve during the war; was reduced to private September 1, 1777; was promoted to corporal February 1, 1778, and was discharged the service April 10, 1780.

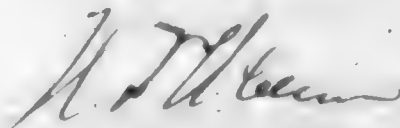

Nothing further bearing upon the subject of inquiry has been found of record.

The Revolutionary War records on file in this Department are of a purely military character and afford no information relative to the families of the soldiers whose names appear thereon.

(Write nothing in this space.)

(Attach this end.)

It is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Pennsylvania State Librarian, Harrisburg, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

The Adjutant General.

Request for military record of the above-named by applicant whose name and address are shown by attached carbon copy of answer.

C. E. Dix:

Samuel McWilliams,
3 Batta. (Lancaster Co. mil.) Pa.

appears, on only 1 card.
(without rank) as of Capt. John Johnston's Co. of mil. of the 3 Batta. of Lancaster County,
Commanded by Col. Thomas
Porter, now in the city of Philadelphia,

on a Co. Muster roll of the orgn. named above, taken from 12 to 26 Dec. 1776

Roll not dated.

Nothing additional.

Johnson
per C. E. Dix.

October 19, 1915.

Respectfully returned to
Mrs. Eva McWilliams Krinbill,
1124 Cedar Ave., Long Beach, California

The records of this office show that one Samuel McWilliams served in the Revolutionary War as a member of the 3d Battn., Lancaster Co., Penna., Militia, commanded by Col. Thos. Porter, stationed in the City of Philadelphia. His name appears only on a co. muster roll covering the period from Dec. 12 to 26, 1776, which bears no special remark relative to him. Nothing further relative to this man has been found of record.

The Revolutionary War records on file in this Dept. are of a purely military character and afford no data relative to the families of the soldiers whose names appear thereon.

It is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Pennsylvania State Librarian, Harrisburg, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D.C.

The postage stamps received with this letter are returned herewith.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON.

A.C. 201 Ramsey, John:
(9-5-23) ORD

September 8, 1923.

Honorable Clyde Kelly,
House of Representatives.

My dear Mr. Kelly:

In response to your letter of the 5th instant, in which you requested the military record of Colonel John Ramsey, of Pennsylvania, said to have served as a commissioned officer in the Revolutionary War, and asked whether it can be established that the officer referred to is the Colonel Ramsey reported to have served as pall bearer for General George Washington, I have the honor to inform you as follows:

No record has been found of service in a Pennsylvania organization, in the Revolutionary War, of a commissioned officer named John Ramsey holding the rank of colonel. It appears, however, that one John Ramsey, holding the rank of lieutenant, served in the war mentioned in Captain John Paxton's Company, 3rd Battalion, Lancaster County Pennsylvania Militia, within the period from December 12, to December 23, year not stated. The date he entered or the date he was separated from the service is not shown.

Nothing has been found of record to indicate that this John Ramsey, the only commissioned officer of that name shown to have served from Pennsylvania in the Revolutionary War, is identical with the "Colonel" Ramsey who served as pall bearer for General George Washington.

Very respectfully,

The Adjutant General.

May 12, 1916.

Respectfully returned to
Mrs. E. S. Graham,
Gardnerville, Kansas.

The records of this office show that one John Ramsey served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Capt. Dorington Williams' Company, 3d Battalion, Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania Militia, commanded by Col. Thomas Porter. His name appears on the roll of that company covering the period from Dec. 15 to 26, 1776, without special remark.

The records also show that one John Ramsey served in Capt. John Paxton's Co., same battalion, from Dec. 12 to 23, year not stated.

Nothing further relative to these men has been found of record, nor has the name Charles Campbell been found on the rolls, on file in this office, of any organization of Pennsylvania or Continental troops in service during that war.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Pennsylvania State Librarian, Harrisburg, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D.C.

The postage stamp received with this letter is returned herewith.

H. J. Allen

Respectfully returned to
Mr. C. K. Riley,
Atlanta, Georgia.

The records of this office show that one Robert Ramsey served in the Revolutionary War as a 2d Lt. in Capt. Worthington Allen's Co., 3d Battalion Lancaster Co. Pennsylvania Militia, commanded by Col. Thos. Porter. His name appears on a Co. muster roll covering the period from Dec. 15 to 26, 1776, without remark.

The records also show that one Robert Ramsey served in said war as a member of the 1st Pennsylvania Regiment. The records indicate that he served from Jan. 1, 1781, to Jan. 1, 1782.

The name William Buffield has not been found on the rolls of any organization of Pennsylvania or Continental troops in service during the war of the Revolution.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Pennsylvania State Librarian, Harrisburg, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, this city.

The Revolutionary War records on file in this Department are of a purely military character, and afford no information relative to the families of the soldiers whose names appear thereon.

The stamped envelope received with this letter is returned here-

Respectfully returned to

Mr. H. C. Ewing,

c/o Robertson & Ewing,

207 Northwestern Bank Building,

Portland, Oregon.

The records of this office show that one Alexander Scott served in the Revolutionary War as a member of Captain Robert Campbell's Company, 3d Battalion of Lancaster County Pennsylvania troops, commanded by Colonel Thomas Porter. His name appears only on an undated muster roll of part of that company covering the period from December 16 to 25, year not stated, which contains no special remark relative to him.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information can be obtained from the Pennsylvania State Librarian, Harrisburg, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

The Adjutant General.

(Attach this end.)

March 15, 1916.

Respectfully returned to

Mrs. Mary Eiser Weber, Alliance, Ohio.

The records of this office show that one Henry Eiser served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Capt. John Bull's company, 3rd Battalion, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, militia, commanded by Col. Peter Westerman, between April 18th and May 3rd and July 27 and August 9, 1779. He is shown to have served 16 days within those periods. Nothing further relative to him has been found of record.

The principal items of the military history of General Nathaniel Greene of Rhode Island, in the Revolutionary War are published in Volume 1, Heitman's Register and Dictionary of the United States Army, 1779 to 1923, page 475. This publication can be consulted in almost any large public library.

It is suggested as a possibility that additional information relative to the within mentioned Henry Eiser can be obtained from the Pennsylvania State Librarian, Harrisburg, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C.

The postage stamp received with this letter is returned herewith.

At Camp
for Ho
The Adjutant-General.

Moll, Anthony

3 Battalion
